

F-15 TCP WWR Visit Request Requirements

As of March 2024

Note: Visit Requests and all required documentation “must” be submitted within 45 days of “any” USAF sponsored event and/or meeting.

An “approved” Visit Request is required for all attendees who are:

- Non-US citizens (Foreign Nationals)
- Non-US Citizen and US Citizens who are acting on the behalf of a foreign government and/or foreign company
- Non-US citizens working for a US owned company

Visit Request process for Non-US citizens:

Visit Request must be submitted to the applicable foreign country embassy in the applicable country. The request is then submitted to the applicable country embassy in Washington, D.C. The US Embassy in Washington, loads the Request into the Visit Request System, which transmits the request to the WR-ALC/Foreign Disclosure Office (FDO). The WR-ALC/FDO sends the Visit Request to the respective WR-ALC Technical Coordination Program (TCP) for review and coordination. After coordination, the Visit Request is returned to the WR-ALC/FDO for approval. Once the Visit Request is approved by WR-ALC/FDO, attendees are notified (via e-mail) by the respective WR-ALC TCP Country Managers.

Visit Request process for Non-US citizens representing foreign government and/or foreign company:

Visit Request must be submitted to the applicable foreign country embassy in the applicable country. The Visit Request is then submitted to the applicable country embassy in Washington, D.C., which in turn submits the Request to the Embassy in Washington, D.C. The US Embassy in Washington, loads the Request into the Visit Request System, which transmits the request to the WR-ALC/Foreign Disclosure Office (FDO). The WR-ALC/FDO sends the Visit Request to the respective WR-ALC Technical Coordination Program (TCP) for review and coordination. After coordination, the Visit Request is returned to the WR-ALC/FDO for approval. Once the Visit Request is approved by WR-ALC/FDO, attendees are notified (via e-mail) by the respective WR-ALC TCP Country Managers.
